KRISHNA -TUNGA, “A MULTI-DISCIPLINARY MULTI LANGUAGE, BI ANNUAL JOURNAL” RAICHUR UNIVERSITY, RAICHUR

Each academic year hundreds of students are undergoing the courses and they are placed in the society. This journal is an effort to supporting the Students, Staff, Departments in terms of development and academic activities. For supporting Curricular and Co- Curricular activities of different Departments of Raichur University. The Departments are able to carry out most of the research writing publications activities.

CALL FOR ARTICLES

Krishna – Tunga Journal is a refereed Bi annual, Multi lingual. Peer reviewed journal published from the staff and students of different Departments of Raichur University to provide a forum for discussion, dialogue/debate and for exchange of ideas on issues of contemporary relevance.

The journal welcomes original, theoretical and insightful writings. It is also open for empirical research articles and case studies etc. Book reviews are encouraged. However, it must be noted that the journal does not in any way take the responsibility for the opinions expressed by authors through their writings and it will be the sole responsibility of the authors to defend their writings.

There is also a column for readers interaction on issues raised in the articles. All such letters/ dialogues/ debates/ must be addressed to the executive editor or the e mail given. The journal has no barrier of disciplines. Articles of all disciplines are welcome but should be of general interest.

Note : All articles/letters/ dialogues/ debates will be subject to evaluation by Editorial Board Referees confidentially chosen by editorial board. The decision of the editorial board is final in all these matters.

From the Editors Desk,

Dear Readers,

Our efforts at publishing a standard journal with qualitative printing, peer review and in a bilingual language has not been easy. Yet we have travelled this far to live up to our believed principles - offering a qualitative reading for academics.

Our efforts at getting the recognition by UGC under the CARE journal are yet not materialized. Despite all these achievements the painful effort that hurts a good academic journal is its readership. We honestly feel that we are not yet recognized for our efforts by our readership. Maybe we are not too good at our marketing strategy either.

In this regard we have designed a plan to prepare a pamphlet to circulate online to all the colleges affiliated to various Universities within and outside Karnataka and on the website. However, this has not excluded scholarly publications of regular research papers.

All I am looking for is a chain of helping hands to come together to celebrate the success of twelve issues of 'Journal' without compromising its quality and standards in matters of publication. I am sure more help will flow in the days to come to make this a success story.

Looking forward for your extended help in future too

Thanking you.

Dr. Harish Ramaswamy
Executive Editor,
On behalf of the editorial Board

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Submission of Manuscripts:

Two identical copies of the manuscript each fully numbered and typed in double spacing throughout, on one side only of white A-4 size paper, plus a disk version of the article should be sent to the Executive Editor. The title of the article and the author's name and address should be typed on separate page of the beginning of the article. The second page should contain an abstract of 100-150 words and the title of the article, but not the author's name. Manuscripts over 25 pages are not encouraged. Papers may be submitted as e-mail but should necessarily be followed by one hard copy. Manuscripts should normally not exceed 6000 words. Manuscripts once submitted will not be returned. Manuscripts which are not in the style specified by the journal will be returned to the authors. The cover page of the paper should bear only the name(s) of the author(s), designation, official address, telephone number and e-mail, title of the paper and brief curriculum vitae of the author(s) as the articles are subjected to anonymous pre-review by a peer group before being accepted for publication. Five off prints of each paper shall be supplied to the principal author along with a copy of the journal on payment.

Duplicity:

Dual submissions are not accepted. Please attach to every submission a covering letter confirming that all the authors have agreed to the submission and that the article/ paper is not currently being considered for publication by any other Journal. Submission of an article/ book review of other item implies that it has not been published or accepted for publication elsewhere. When an article has been accepted for publication the author is strongly encouraged to send a copy of the final version on a rewritable computer disk, together with the hard copy 'typescript, giving details of the work processing software used.

References:

At the end of the paper, all references should be consolidated in a single alphabetical list starting on a new page. References to publications should be placed in the text, Reference should be indicated in the typescript by giving author's name, with the year of publication in parentheses. Authors are particularly requested to verify that each text reference appears in the list, and vice versa. In addition to author's surname and first name(s) and initial (s), and the title of the book or article, references to books should always include the place of publication and publisher, and for journal articles, the volume number and page numbers.

Footnotes:

If there are a few points that require discussion in the article but not in the body of the text, numbered footnotes may be used. Numbered footnotes should be typed consecutively, double spaced, at the end of the paper, starting on a new page. Jargon should be avoided, technical terms not widely understood should be clearly defined; and the conclusions of statistical analysis should be clear as well as supported by quantitative information in tables, footnotes and text as appropriate.

Note : A declaration to the effect that the article/research paper/ opinion in it is solely the responsibility of the author should be enclosed. plagiarism is seriously discouraged. If found guilty author is solely responsible. Process charges of Rs. 1500/- shall be paid by the author/s subject to the acceptance of the article.

Book Reviews:

Authors/ Publishers desirous of their book(s) to be reviewed in the journal should send two copies of the book to the Executive Editor.
